

The EcoComplex team is conducting a research project to determine the amount of plastics discarded into the trash. The team examined the trash from several towns in the area. Findings will be published soon!

